Changing jobs?

Stay with us and keep the benefits of your TWUSUPER membership.

Changing jobs can be exhausting. You will be dealing with new people, new responsibilities and often a new location. The last thing you want is an extra super account to work out.

TWUSUPER is your low cost industry super fund and exists solely to represent the best interests of members. Stay with us and continue to benefit from:

- > Low fees
- > No commissions
- > Strong long term investment performance
- > A range of investment options
- > Flexible insurance with competitive premiums
- > A low cost pension so you can stay with us for the long term
- > Affordable financial advice over the phone
- > Low cost banking through ME Bank.*

Who can stay with TWUSUPER?

Everyone! You can stay with us even if you leave the transport industry. Whether you are working or unemployed, self-employed or retired we've got the right account for you. It's your choice.

How do I get my employer to contribute to my TWUSUPER account?

Tell your new employer you would like to stay with your current super fund.

Your employer will confirm whether they are already paying into TWUSUPER and also if you are eligible for choice of fund.

Will my employer have to pay any fees?

TWUSUPER charges no fees to participating employers.

TAKE ACTION

If your new employer is already paying into TWUSUPER just give them your member number.

If your new employer does not currently pay into TWUSUPER, and has agreed it's your choice, complete the Standard Choice form, and give it to your employer together with the Complying Fund Notice available at www.twusuper.com.au.

Alternatively, call us on 1800 222 071 for a Changing jobs? brochure – it has all the forms you need.
